COLTURE

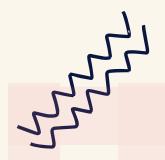

SIGN IN AND GET

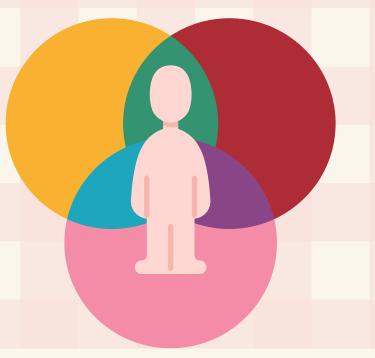

INDIVIDUALS DO NOT POSSESS A SINGLE, STATIC IDENTITY. WE CANNOT CATEGORIZE ANYONE'S EXPERIENCES BASED ON A SINGLE ASPECT OF THEIR IDENTITY SUCH AS THEIR GENDER IDENTITY. INSTEAD, WE SHOULD ALSO ACCOUNT FOR HOW THEIR CULTURE AND THEIR BACKGROUND (ALONG WITH OTHER FACTORS SUCH AS ABILITY, SOCIOECONOMIC STATUS, SEXUAL ORIENTATION, ETC) INTERSECT WITH THEIR GENDER IDENTITY TO CREATE THEIR EXPERIENCES OF THE WORLD.

HOW DO YOU THINK YOUR CULTURE IMPACTS YOUR VIEW OF FEMININITY. ARE THERE ANY SPECIFIC EXAMPLES?

WHAT DOES INTERSECTIONALITY MEAN TO YOU?

Indian Culture & Gendered Experiences

Period Inequality

- Women on their period aren't allowed to enter temples, cook, etc
- Based in Hindu texts, followed by older generations

Colorism

- Cosmetics promoting skin whitening ex. Fair & Lovely
- Tollywood industry

Within our experience:

Women are the religious leaders of the household

Powerful Hindu Goddesses

 Durga Devi, extremely powerful goddess of feminine prowess, power, determination, wisdom

Gendered Experiences in Vietnam

Women continue to form a large majority of the working poor, earn less income, and are more often affected by under- and un-employment and precarious working conditions than men, despite making up a large portion of the labor force

- the face of leadership in Vietnam is still overwhelmingly male.

Vietnamese women often have less access to productive resources, education, and skills development and labour market opportunities than men

Society generally assigns them a lower status than men

Vietnam continues to carry cultural values that expect women to remain mostly at home and dependent on men in their families, such as husbands or fathers

However, the rates of participation in society by Vietnamese women is slowly rising today, as beliefs and values continue to evolve

The Philippines and Gendered

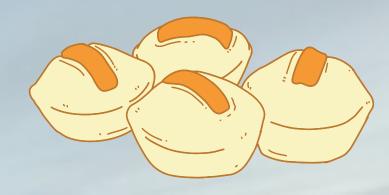

2001-2010

1986-1992

Experiences

Beauty Standards: Colorism- preference for pale skin (also use Fair and Lovely) and other white features.

Education and Careers: Filipino women often pursue higher education and powerful careers. The Philippines has had two female Presidents,. However, lower class women have less access to these opportunities and often serve as 24/7 live-in maids and nannies for wealthy families from a young age.

Household: (In my experience) a lot of women are reliant on their husbands as providers. Women are often in charge of cooking and raising children, but this usually becomes a group effort between families and sometimes assistance from maids and nannies.

Religion: Women aren't allowed to directly lead religion (Catholicism), but are the religious leaders of the household. Not many female religious icons (Virgin Mary (Jesus' Mother, known for never sinning) and some female Saints.

Denmark vs. Italy Gendered Experiences

Italy

Cons

 Current wage gap between men and women are an average of 15 cents

Denmark

Pros

- Laws in 2022 were passed to equally distribute parental leave when childcare is necessary
- Appointed the world's first female minister of education in 1924

Cons

 Only 23.7% of full professors are women in Universities within Italy

Pros

- Women's movement has been buit to promote anti-violence against women
- Organizations are being formed to support transgender youth within Italy

Have you witnessed a change in your culture's viewpoint on gender throughout the generations?

How do religious beliefs and practices influence gendered experiences within different cultures?

Consider the role of family and community in shaping gendered experiences. How do familial and community expectations and support systems impact individuals' gender identities and experiences?

In what ways do language and terminology related to gender identity vary across cultures, and how might those variations impact people of different gender identities?
